Welcome to SILENT COURIER.

This portal is designed with the highest levels of security to allow individuals to pass information safely to MI6.

Contacting us is a courageous act that only few are brave enough to take. Be assured that our entire organisation exists to protect and support the people who provide us with information.

MI6 provides intelligence and insight to the highest levels of the British Government. Our reporting shapes global events and ensures our government can be a force for good.

MI6 have intelligence requirements across all areas of global instability, armed conflict, terrorism, hostile intelligence activity, illegal weapons trading and serious crime.

If you have sensitive information on any of these subjects and want to make a difference to the world, please complete the form below to securely contact MI6.

We will never disclose – to anyone – the identity of those who contact us, in any capacity.

Urgent and threat to life information

If you have information relating to an urgent threat to life or property in the UK, such as a planned terrorist attack, please immediately contact the Police by calling 999 (if you are in the UK) or contacting the Anti-Terrorism Hotline on 0800 789 321.

If you have information about a threat in the UK such as terrorism or a state threat, where there is no immediate threat to life, please contact MI5 (Security Service) via their website www.mi5.gov.uk.

MI6 is governed by UK law as part of the Intelligence and Security Act (ISA) 1994.

Preparation

Any communication using the internet involves risk: the best method to contact us depends on your personal situation and environment. Data submitted on this website is secured to the highest standard but internet browsing activity, including visits to this website, can be monitored by most hostile governments.

You can decrease this risk by:

- Using the Tor browser or a virtual private network (VPN) to increase your privacy.
- If using a VPN (especially in a hostile country), considering carefully the VPN provider that you choose. Do not enter any data linked to your own identity when setting up the VPN.
- Using a device which is not registered to you.
- Ensuring your internet browser is updated.
- Creating a free new email address or social media account for us to reply to. Do not use a name, phone number or other data linked to your real identity when creating this account.
- Contacting us from outside your country if you are able to travel.

However you choose to contact us, please include the following:

- How we can safely recontact you.
- A description of the information you wish to share with us.

We highly value and will always read all submissions, but we do not reply to all messages.
